HALLMARK

ROWLAND HALL-ST. MARK'S

843 LINCOLN STREET
SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH 84102

DEDICATION

Among the schools admitting this year's seniors were highly selective colleges and universities all over the country, including several Ivy League institutions. The class is very pleased with these results and agrees that much of this success can be credited to the work of Mrs. Patricia A. Goldsmith, our college counselor.

Pat Goldsmith came to Rowland Hall-St. Mark's last year from a job as a highly esteemed college admissions officer at Harvard University. Her background gives her invaluable insight into the college admissions process that has benefited students immensely. In addition to this knowledge, her background provides her with many connections and much influence.

Mrs. Goldsmith's enthusiasm for her job is evident. Her individual attention and concern have helped students in many areas from planning college tours, to writing college essays. Seniors appreciate her openness and honesty and subsequently value her opinion.

Mrs. Goldsmith pushed students to their highest potential without allowing them to overstep their ability. She did her utmost to assure acceptances at "safety" and "reach" school alike. Mrs. Goldsmith is proud of each student's acceptances, to say the least.

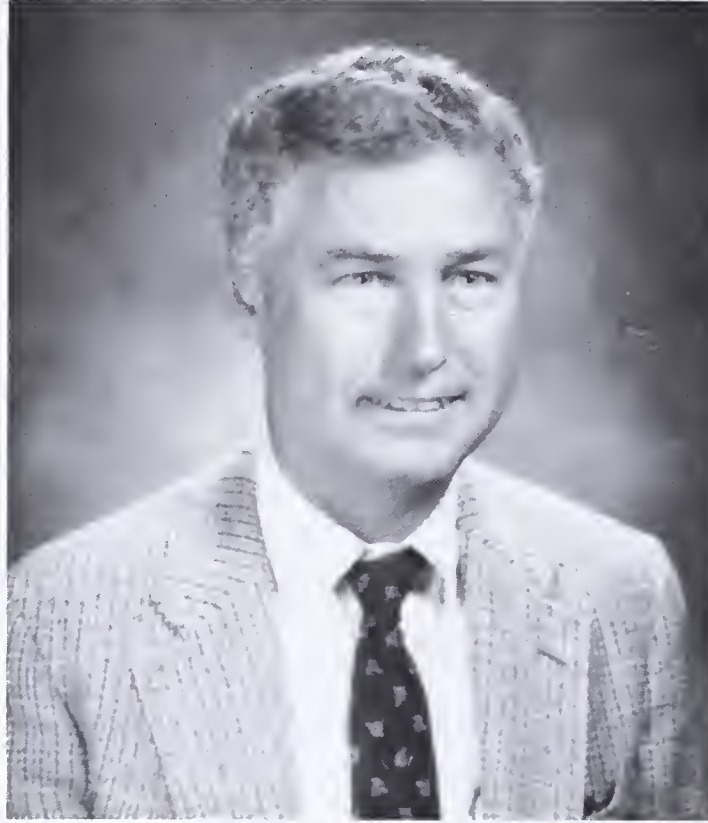

For her accomplishments, the yearbook staff would like to dedicate the 1988-1989 Hallmark to Pat Goldsmith and thank her for her many hours. When we consider that she alone completed an average of four to five recommendations for each senior in addition to the rest of the work her job requires, the thought is overwhelming. Our thanks and gratitude are thus expressed to a most indispensable member of the Rowland Hall-St. Mark's School community.

FISH - OUR PRICELESS HERITAGE

Three species of fish live in Phelix Creek. Rainbow Trout return from the lake in spring at age three or four. Kokanee (landlocked Sockeye Salmon) spawn in the fall at age four or five along with five-year old Dolly Varden.

These fish are a priceless legacy and should not be harassed, chased or injured in any way. If disturbed, fewer eggs are deposited, resulting in fewer fish for the future.

With your help and with help from nature, these fish will always remain an important part of the park's natural heritage.

ACTIVITIES

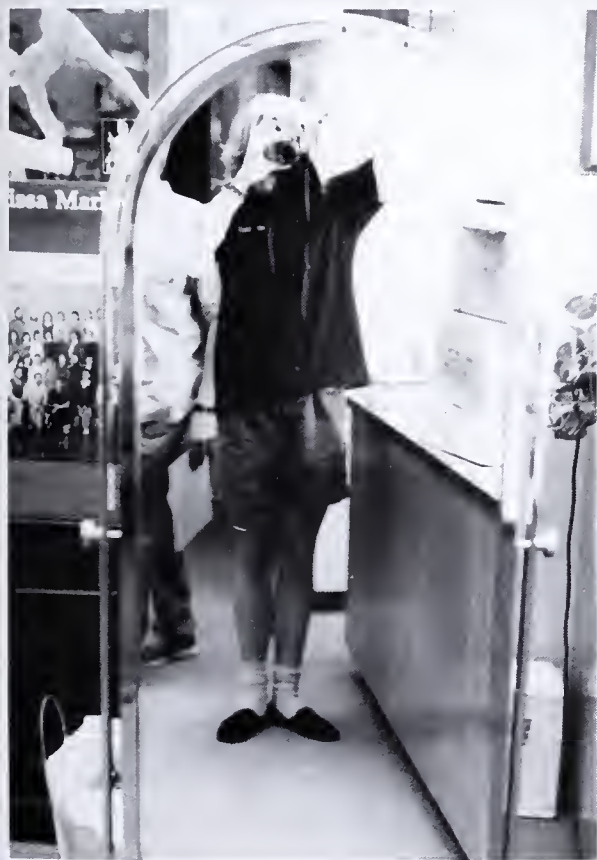

YEARBOOK

This year's 1988-89 Hallmark staff worked exceptionally hard to create our incredible yearbook. We have added a color fold-out group photo of the illustrious senior class and have changed some pages so that our book could be the best yearbook ever. Many members worked hard after hours with enthusiasm and dedication to bring you this book, and we hope that you love it as much as we do! Thank you to everyone who helped, and a special thanks to MaryAnn Rees, our faculty advisor and friend, for her guidance, expertise, and always-welcomed sense of humor.

NEWSPAPER

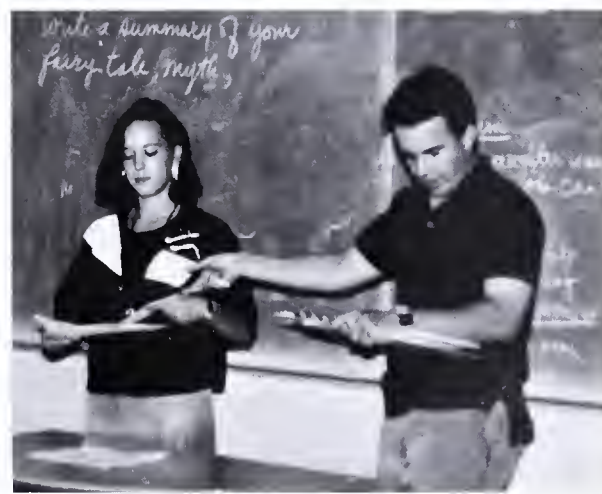

The Rowland Hall-St. Mark's Gazette was issued monthly this year under supervision of advisor Barbara Boardman and editors Linda Lai and George Scott. The staff, which ranged from twelve to eighteen members, produced the newspaper completely in-house this year. The entire process, including reporting, writing, typesetting, and layout, was performed by the students. The Gazette was almost economically self-sufficient this year. The goal of the staff was to win, for the third consecutive year, the Utah Journalism Education Association Critical Service Best Newspaper Class 2A award. The members worked to receive a Quill and Scroll award as well.

DEBATE

The debate team was once again successful this year largely due to the coaching skills of Dr. Carl Sturges. Assistant coach, Frank Langheinrich, helped lead the Lincoln-Douglas team to success. The team spent many hours after school preparing briefs and speeches to compete until late on weeknights and on weekends. The number of trophies awarded overwhelmed both coaches and team members.

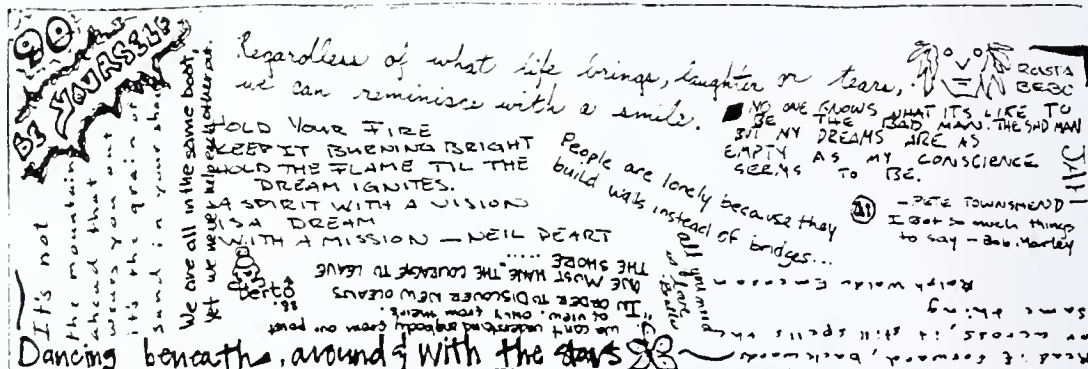

Team co-captains: Marta Heilbrun and Wendy Lin
 Policy co-captains: Matt Rogers and Liz Abanza
 Lincoln-Douglas captain: Sutton Snook
 Individual Events captain: Jennifer Lanheinrich
 Legislative Forum captain: Sarah Culp
 Other team members: Scott Adler, Amy Buchi, Garrett Delavan, Elizabeth Goldstein, Alison Hermance, Nayer Khazeni, Linda Lai, Alex McClain, Mona Okada, Dominique Rampton, Alex Reid, Ed Salmon, Meredith Smith, Lauren Strachan, Heather VanDeventer, Brad Williams, Angelo Chachas, Jennifer Beck, Benjamin Dahl, Libero Della Piana, Adam Haigh, Kirsten Holm, Grace Kong, Eric Lanheinrich, Valerie Neilson, Matthew Prince, Dan Ray, Hillary Rogers, Benjy Smith, Antonia Stang, Reagan Tolboe, Michelle Wade, Rachael Yocum

PEER COUNSELING

This year's Peer Counselors dealt with issues such as relationships, self-esteem, sexuality, and drugs and alcohol on a community level and on a one-to-one basis. They also worked very closely with the 7th & 8th grade advisory groups leading discussions on similar issues. Good job, PCs!

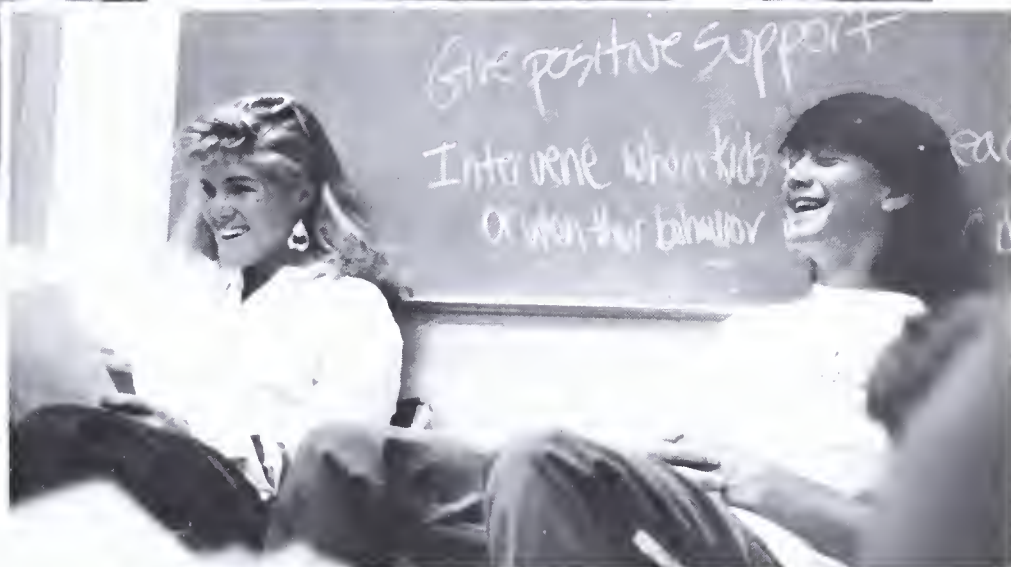

A few thoughts the PCs want to share with us.

MIDDLE SCHOOL DANCES

Photographs by Bob Ligget

WRITING LAB

The writing lab was designed to give students an opportunity to improve their writing skills using Macintosh computers. Both the seventh and eighth grades took a trimester writing class in the lab and used the time to write stories or essays or to work on class assignments while learning word processing. High school English teachers often took advantage of the writing lab to allow their classes to work on writing projects on the computers. Marjorie Coombs was the coordinator for the lab and had the help of Mrs. Doxey and Donna Eagan.

MIDDLE SCHOOL RETREAT

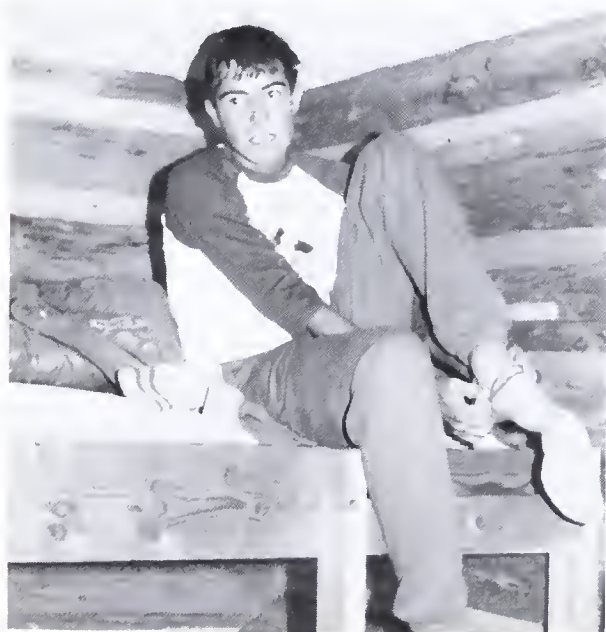

On Friday, September 23, the seventh and eighth graders and their Peer Counselors joined for the annual Middle School Retreat at Mountain Dell. It was a day of sheer fun and enjoyment. It gave the new RHSM students a chance to ask the eighth graders questions that no one else could answer. The students participated in many fun activities such as relay races, capture the flag, volleyball and many others. Everyone had a wonderful, unforgettable time.

TETON SCIENCE SCHOOL

Thirty-odd ninth and tenth grade students left their way of life with junkfood and T.V. to live in the Greater Yellowstone Eco-system. They went to Teton Science School to live, learn, and eat health food as they never did before. The long days of hiking and short nights of sleeping went by fast. The counselors taught them everything from how to have fun with animal scat to how the fires affected the living and non-living things in the burn sites. The group arrived back at RHSM with facts, figures, and fun as memories of living in the great outdoors.

NATIONAL HONORS SOCIETY

The Rho Hota chapter of the National Honor Society was more active than ever. Headed by president, Betsy Mason; vice-president, Lauren Strachan; secretary, Dominique Rampton; assistant secretary, Marta Heilbrun; and advisor, Mary Beth Beck, the NHS proctored study halls, tutored upper and middle school students, and worked on community service projects and other projects within the school. New students who met the qualifications were introduced into the NHS after the second trimester. This year's returning members were the following: Liz Abaunza, Jeremy Barber, Jennifer Beck, Jane Ann Burdick, Sarah Culp, Libero Della Piana, Marta Heilbrun, Amy Hoepfner, Robert Hyun, David Kong, Adam Light, Wendy Lin, Larissa Lubomudrov, Melissa Marlowe, Betsy Mason, Deborah Miller, Colette Rabin, George Scott, Benjy Smith, Meredith Smith, Lauren Strachan, Niki Tipple, Jason West, Rachael Yocum, Brooke Baughman, Adam Carroll, Heather Van Deventer, Heather Horne, Yoko Inoue, Mika Kato, Marianne Maw, Alex McClain, Dominique Rampton, Rick Rauschmeier, Matt Rogers, Sutton Snook, and Ali Wilson.

FINE ARTS

CANDLE AND CAROL

The choir, led by Rick McClure, performed on the eve of December 20.

Chris Swindle and Amy Buchi were two of the seven readers.

Brian and Julianne exchange trinkets outside the Cathedral of St. Mark.

Jen and Ali serve as acolytes.

James looks forward to the wassail after the service.

"Sing choirs of angels."

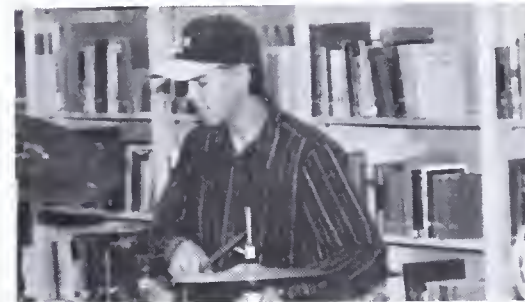

Missy on the verge of leaving the cathedral.

ROWTOWN

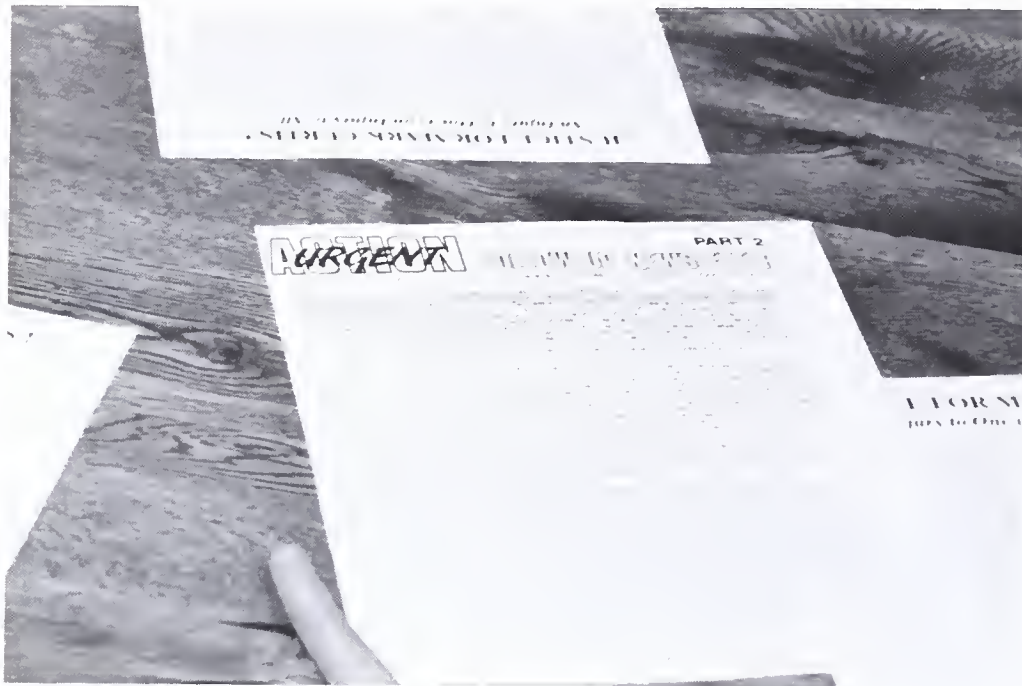

Rowtown was so popular this year that two separate bands were formed. The program expanded to involve more musicians including middle school students. The bands performed three "En Concerts," one each trimester. Other performances included "Brain Food" and recording sessions. Second year advisor, Rick McClure, stated: "I am really pleased that this young group has come as far as they have this year. I'm looking forward to seeing them progress musically in the years to come."

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Amnesty International is an organization dedicated to liberating prisoners of conscience through peaceful means. The Rowland Hall branch of Amnesty was led by sophomore, Shilo Nelson. The group met weekly to learn about the many political prisoners around the world. The members wrote letters to governments asking for the release of many of these prisoners.

DANCES

Dances were more successful than ever this year. They were characterized by increased participation and enthusiasm. A Christmas semi-formal added to this positive trend.

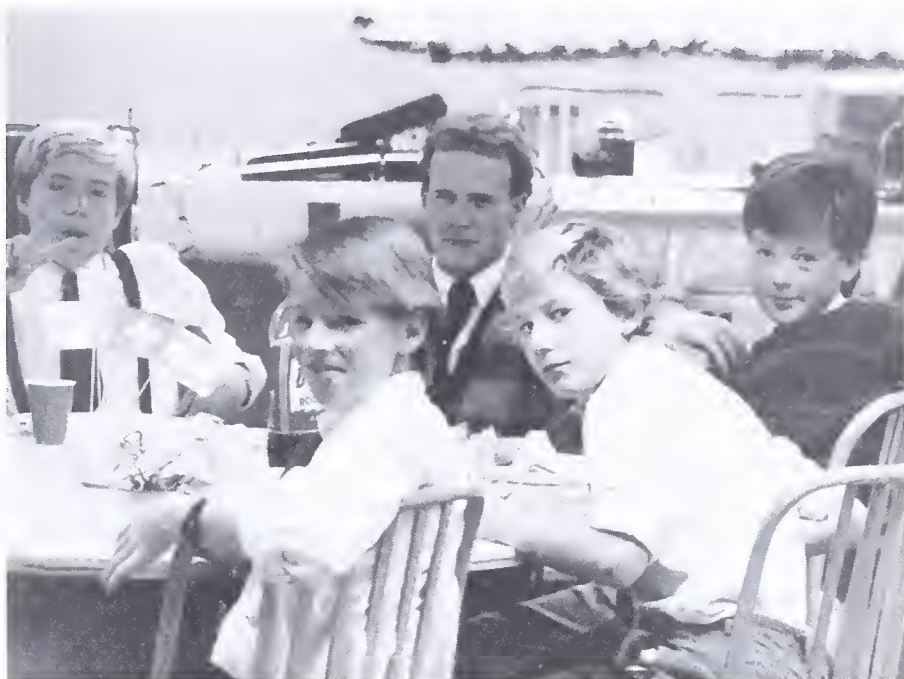

MIDDLE SCHOOL OFFICERS

The middle school officers for the eighth grade were president, Niki Paulos; and vice-president, Chris Lee. The seventh grade officers were president, Jason Tundermann; and vice-president, Elizabeth Barrett. Activities the council directed included the Halloween and Valentine's Day dances. The student council advisor was Leslie Stone.

COMMUNITY LUNCH

This year, instead of the traditional Peace Feast, the middle school invited Alexander Alexandrovich Kaptlan and Nicholai Constantinovich Pakhomov to speak at a community lunch. The speakers were members of the Magna, Utah On-Site Inspection crew from the Soviet Union. The students, who provided food from various cultures, asked the visitors questions about life in the Soviet Union for students of the same age.

SPORTS

GIRLS' TENNIS

The girls' tennis team was once again region champions defeating St. Joe's and South Summit to claim the title. The team finished fourth in the State Championships, with Deborah Miller, the second singles player, leading the team in second place. Congratulations to first-year coach Nikola Sorovic for a great season!

The members of the 1988 team were co-captains Sarah Culp and Deborah Miller, Katie Poinier, Suzanne Palmer, Cassie Ferguson, Kristen Wenger, Betsy Mason, Kara Kim, Dominique Rampton, and Marianne Von Waldenfiles.

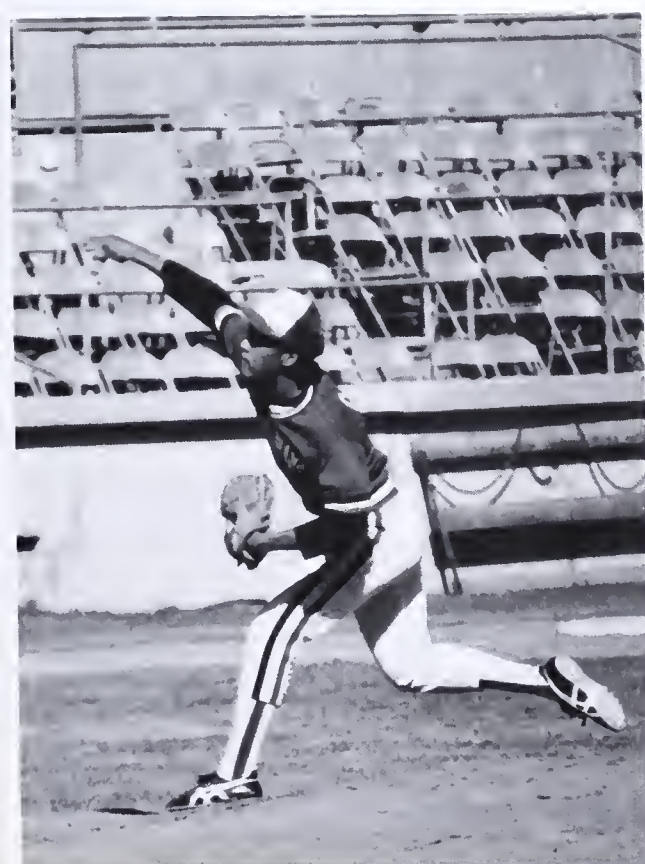

Are we having fun yet?

BOYS' BASEBALL

This year's Rowland Hall-St. Mark's varsity baseball team consisted of Masamichi Iwata, Jason West, Chris Swindle, Brian Conner, Jesse Lowe, John Bagley, Eric Selekof, and Eric Baughman. Players who were on both junior varsity and varsity teams were Jim Crockett, Steve Spurgeon, Adam Carroll, Carter Matzinger, Chris Mark, Steve Harmson, Price Ellington, and Chris Nixon. Junior varsity players were Jake McCandless, Garrett Delavan, Marc Mathis, Adam Haigh, Eric Langheinrich, Alex Reid, Kozo Otsuka, and Edmund Wrenn. The team thanks George Matthews, David Hall, Danny Shwam, and Frank Langheinrich for their guidance.

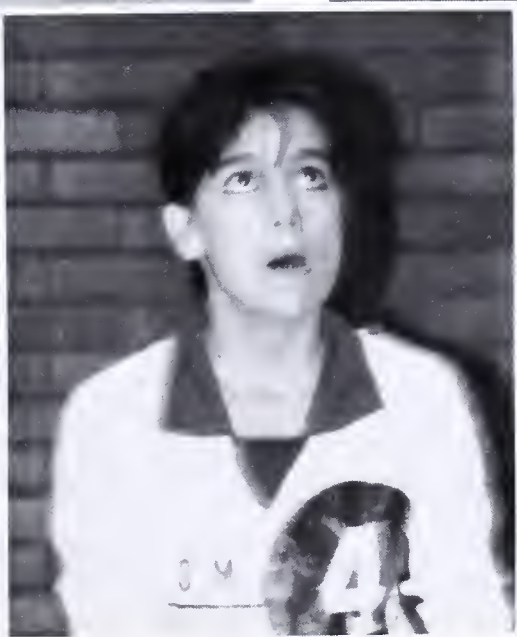

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

The 1988-1989 volleyball team players were Lauren Strachan, Larissa Lubomudrov, Wendy Lin, Meredith Smith, Mika Kato, Ali Wilson, Ellen Erlingsson, Jessica Lux, Sara Rock, Michele Cordray, Mari Hoidal, Kandyce Easton, Amanda Maw, Linda Lai, Gretchen Mathis, and Mona Okada.

The junior varsity team's winning season was a result of the determination of both veteran and new players, and also the leadership of Coach Laurie Carpenter. Both the coach and returning team members are looking forward to a strong team next year.

ROWMARK

Photographs by Olle Larsson

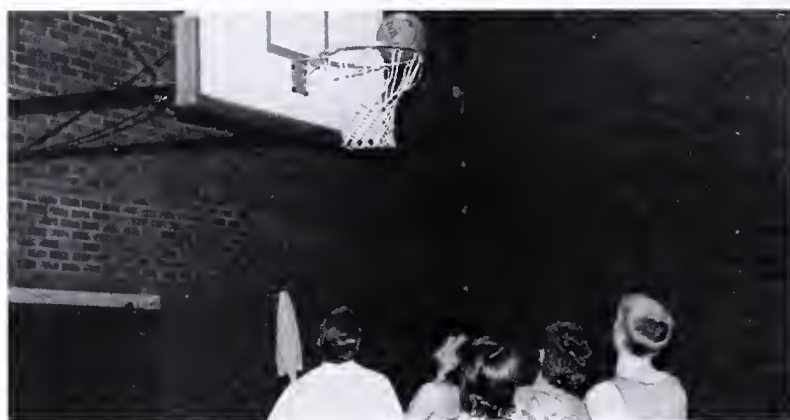

Rowmark Ski Academy returned for its sixth year in 1988-89. Under the guidance of program director Olle Larsson and coaches Marjan Cernigoj, Steve Addicott, and Jack Dainton, the athletes did intensive fall dryland training followed by winter ski training every afternoon to prepare for the ski racing season. The 1988-89 Rowmark athletes were Melissa Austin, Mikel Barcena, Masamichi Iwata, Craig Kilbane, David Kong, Whitt Lee, Kozo Otsuka, Niki Tipple, Kristine Wamba, Jason West, Anders Wollan, Jiro Bannai, David Cowen, Kelly Hannah, Brangan Sherman, Sarah Heilbrun, Darren Hicks, Jesse Lowe, Kitty Northrup, Kathy Ogles, Katie Poinier, Matt Ramsey, Rudy Riet, Jeremiah Thompson, and Hakon Bjercke.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Coached by Danny Shwam, the boys' basketball team overcame their weaknesses to improve steadily throughout the season. The team played well despite their small size and inexperience; they look forward to the coming season. This year's team consisted of John Bagley, Eric Selekof, Dustin Marshall, Wood Moyle, Charley Lind, Rick Rauschmeier, Steve Harmsen, Justin Peterson, Price Ellington, John Kleinschmidt, and Scott Nuismer.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team, coached by Laurie Carpenter, had a good season despite losing all but three of last year's players. Even though they fell short of their goal of "a 500 season," they have high hopes for next year. Returning players were Amy Hoepfner, Ali Wilson, and Mika Kato. New players were Jennifer Jones, Jessica Lux, Gretchen Mathis, Sara Rock, and Ellen Erlingsson.

A Part of You, A Part of Me

Every moment that we're together, I'm learning something, and that knowledge becomes a permanent part of me.

Though my feelings will be different a year from now, part of the difference is you. Because of you, I am a different person, and the person I will grow to become, with or without you by my side, will have gotten there partly because of you.

If you were not in my life right now, I could not be who I am right now, nor would I be growing in exactly the same way.

Much of what I grow towards and what I change within myself has to do with what I respond to in you, what I learn from you, and what I understand about my feelings in the dynamics of our relationship.

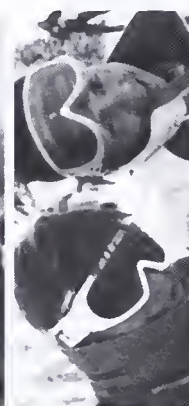

I do not worry about our future together since we've already touched each other and affected each other's lives on so many levels that we can never be totally removed from each other's thoughts. A part of me will always be you, and a part of you will always be me. That much is certain, no matter what else happens.

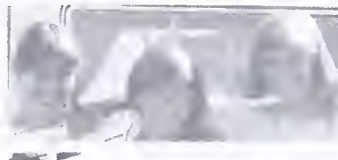

• WE LOVE YOU MOM AND DAD •

And miles to go before I sleep, And miles to go before I sleep.

Your time has come to shine, all your dreams are on their way... Reality will separate us... memories will keep us together. I'll Miss You!

YOUR FAVORITE PLACE TO BUY FLOWERS

MORGAN SHAUNA MARIE

Here is a little girl of three,
Reflecting back at me.
She defiantly won't wear a dress,
Nor does she care if her hair is a mess.

Dolls resting on her bed,
She's on her knees playing with trucks instead.
Shawn had her first driving experience at three,
And wrecked our gray 260 Z.

Then elementary school came her way,
With boys is all she would play.
Motorcycles and soccer were her joy,
No ballet for this little "boy".

Fortunately she joined friends in Open Class,
As her T-shirt said "OC's A Blast".
She learned to accept people for what they were,
Even girls became her friends for sure.

Junior High was exciting you see,
They made a mistake and placed her in boys P.E.
To her name Shawn she added an "a",
"Shauna" sounded quite ok.

Ninth grade graduation suddenly came,
Wearing a white dress she didn't quite look the same.
She seemed to have changed so suddenly,
A beautiful woman she turned out to be.

Racing on a pair of skis,
She excelled quite rapidly.
Ribbons and trophies filled her room for sure,
There is just no place to add any more.

The sophomore year was personal growth for her,
1986-87 she would try to endure.
Sometimes life can be hard to bear,
But she was strong and what she learned she would share.

Then one day she said, "I'm sick of it all,
I want to go to Rowland Hall".
Acceptance brought her a huge smile,
She always went that extra mile.

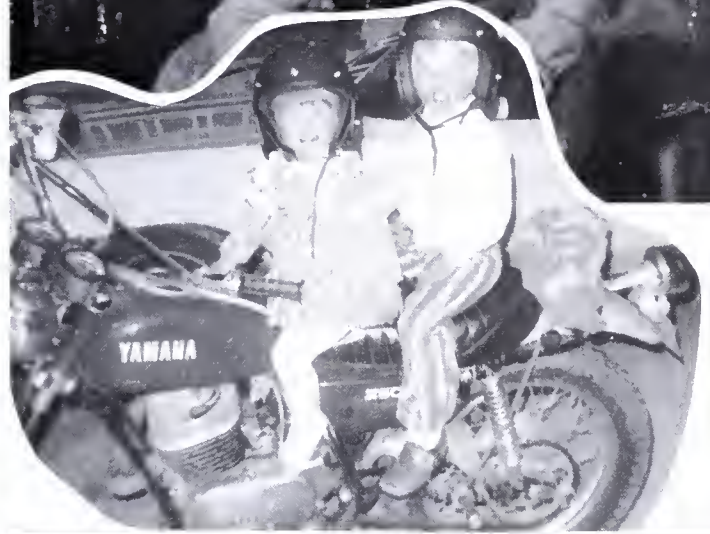

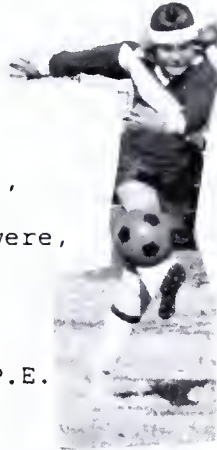

Late nights studying for her French test,
She seemed to get very little rest.
Drink lots of coffee to stay awake,
Hope you don't make many mistakes.

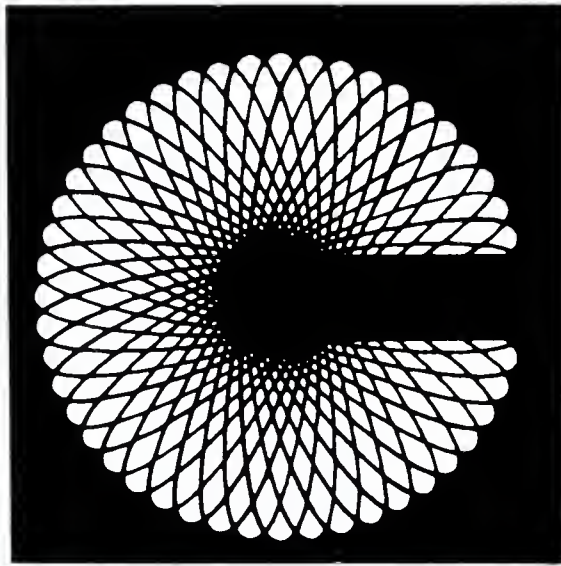

Senior year can be alot of work yet fun,
Applications to colleges--"Let me be accepted by one".
Afternoons looking forward in getting the mail,
"You have been accepted! Go give them hell".

Finally came the big graduation night,
The future really does look bright.
This time seemed to come so fast,
As she reflected back in the past.

CONGRADULATIONS SHAUNA!
WE LOVE YOU!

When I was One,
I had just begun.

When I was Two,
I was nearly new.

When I was Three,
I was hardly Me.

When I was Four,
I was not much more.

When I was Five,
I was just alive.

But now I am Six, I'm as clever as clever.
So I think I'll be six now for ever and ever.

JEN, EIGHTEEN WILL BE GLORIOUS.
LOVE,
MOM, DAD, SUE, MIKE,

AND MELISSA

Sarah-barah,
You climbed up the tree and gathered her apples and you
picked very wisely.
And the tree is very happy.
Congratulations!
